Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of

Renasant Foundation Inc.

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Renasant Foundation Inc. (the Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2023, the statements of revenue and expenses, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as at March 31, 2023, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organizations, the Organization derives revenue from donations, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the organization. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to the donation and fundraising revenue, excess of revenues over expenses, and cash flows from operations for the years ended March 31, 2023 and 2022, current assets as at March 31, 2023 and 2022, and net assets as at April 1 and March 31 for both the 2023 and 2022 years. Our audit opinion on the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation in scope.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

March 31, 2023

Renascent Foundation Inc. (the "Foundation") was incorporated on November 28, 1983 under the Ontario Corporations Act and funds special projects related to the alcohol and drug treatment programs. Funds are raised through certain fund raising and other revenue generating activities.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

a) Cash

Cash consists of cash on hand and balances with banks. Cash and cash equivalents held in investment portfolio accounts have been included with investments as the purpose of this cash is for investment rather than meeting short term cash commitments.

b) Revenue recognition

Fees for service revenue is recorded following the deferral method of accounting and is recognized at the time the service is provided and the related expenses are incurred.

The Foundation follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions, which includes restricted grants and donations.

Designated grants and donations that have not been disbursed at year end are recorded as deferred revenue on the statement of financial position. Upon disbursement, the payment is recorded as an expense and the donation is recorded as revenue.

Donations and grants restricted for a specific purpose that have not been spent at the end of the year are recorded as deferred revenue on the statement of financial position. They are recognized as revenue when distributed.

Endowment contributions are recognized as increases in net assets in the year in which they are received. Interest earned on endowment funds is not restricted and is recognized on the statement of revenue and expenses when earned.

Unrestricted grants and donation revenue received pertaining to specific projects are recognized as revenue as the related project expenditures are incurred. Unspent grants and donations are recorded as deferred revenue.

e) Financial instruments

Financial instruments

The Foundation initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. The Foundation subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for short term investments, which are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in net income.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash and accounts receivable.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Financial assets measured at fair value include short term investments. The portion of short term investments in equity instruments that are quoted in an active market are measured at fair value. The Foundation has elected to carry mutual funds and other securities held in the investment portfolio at fair value.

The Foundation does not have any financial liabilities measured at fair value and has not elected to recognize any financial liabilities at fair value.

Transaction costs

The Foundation recognizes its transaction costs in net income in the period incurred except for financial instruments that will not be subsequently measured at fair value. The carrying amounts of these instruments are adjusted by the transaction costs that are directly attributable to their issuance.

d) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. The Foundation amortizes its capital assets over their estimated future lives on the following annual basis:

Building	- 5% straight-line
Furniture and equipment	- 20% declining-balance
Leasehold improvements	- 20% straight-line
Major renovations	- 10% straight-line
Computer software	- 30% declining-balance

e) Impairment of long-lived assets

A long lived asset is tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicated that its carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows resulting from its use and eventual disposition. The impairment loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the long-lived asset exceeds its fair value. There were no indicators of impairment in the current or prior year.

f) Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of the Foundation's financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions which affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimated life of capital assets, valuation of accounts receivable, accrued liabilities are the most significant items that involve use of estimates.

g) Contributed Materials and Services

Certain materials and services are provided at no cost to the Foundation. The value of such materials and services that would otherwise have been purchased during the year is estimated to be $16,318 (2022 - $5,074). This amount is not recognized in the financial statements. Volunteer hours that are donated have not been recorded by the Foundation.

h) Allocation of expenses

The Foundation engages in various programs as noted on the Statement of Revenue and Expenses. The costs of these include the costs of personnel and other expenses that are directly related to providing the programs. The Foundation also incurs payroll expenses that are common to the administration of the organization and each of its programs.

The Foundation allocates certain of its payroll expenses on the basis of estimated time spent on each function. This basis is applied consistently each year.

10. Guarantees

The Foundation has provided security for the operating facilities for Renascent Fellowship through a guarantee and postponement of claim in the amount of $275,000.

The Foundation has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance to mitigate the cost of any potential future suits or actions. The maximum amount of any potential future payment cannot be reasonably determined.

11. Financial instruments risk exposure

The Foundation is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments. The following analysis provides a measure of the Foundation's risk exposure and concentrations at the balance sheet date.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Foundation is exposed to credit risk in the event of non-performance by counterparties in connection with its accounts receivable. The maximum exposure to credit risk is the carrying value of accounts receivable. The allowance for doubtful accounts is $Nil (2022 - $33,907).

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Foundation will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Foundation is exposed to liquidity risk arising primarily from its long term debt obligations. The Foundation's ability to meet obligations is dependent on the receipt of funds from its donors, fees for service as well as other related sources of revenue. The Foundation mitigates this risk by managing its working capital and cashflows and through the availability of its credit line. The Foundation has not had issues with meeting obligations in the past.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. The Foundation is mainly exposed to interest rate risk and other price risk.

Renascent Foundation Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

---

11. Financial instruments risk exposure (continued)

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Foundation has several mortgages with interest at varying rates and maturity dates. Changes in the interest rates upon renewal can cause fluctuations in interest payments and cash flows. The Foundation does not use derivative financial instruments to alter the effects of this risk.

Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value of financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors to the individual instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all instruments traded in the market. The Foundation's exposure to price risk is limited as the investment mix consists mainly of cash, mutual funds and guaranteed investment certificates.

12. COVID-19 and Government assistance related to COVID-19

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared an outbreak of a novel coronavirus (COVID-19) as a global pandemic, which has led to a significant impact on the Canadian and global economies. The full impact of the Covid-19 outbreak continues to evolve at the date of this report. An estimate of the financial effect on the organization cannot be made at this time. Management has proactively taken steps to continue delivery of programs and services during the pandemic ensuring the safety of all staff and participants.

The organization applied for and received Government assistance related to the COVID-19 pandemic under the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS) program. The CEWS program provides varying wage subsidy rates based on government outlined subsidy periods commencing March 15, 2020. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, the organization was eligible for $Nil (2022 - $2,517) in subsidies from the CEWS program which is recognized in the statement of operations under government subsidies.

13. Comparative amounts

Certain of the prior year comparative amounts have been re-classified to conform to the current year's financial statement presentation.
